These individuals, as the Selection Committee, will be responsible for deciding which films are to form part of the Festival programme, as well as choosing the sections in which each of the selected works will compete, or if they will be programmed out of competition, as well as the projects that will form part of the Corte Final section.

No one who has an interest in the production or exploitation of the films presented in this contest may form part of the Selection Committee.

At the end of the selection process, the Festival will notify its decision by email to those selected. Once their participation has been confirmed, the Festival will publish the list of selected films on its web page (www.documentamadrid.com).

Once the inclusion of a film has been communicated to the public, it may not be unilaterally withdrawn from the programme.

The participation of a film in the Festival may not be disclosed until the Festival has publicly and officially announced said participation.

4.- REGISTRATION PROCESS

The deadline for registering works proposed for any section of the Festival is 20 March 2022.

Said registration will be made exclusively on-line through the official Festival website (www.documentamadrid.com).

Participating films must submit a viewing link with Spanish/ English subtitles, with the download option enabled. The password for the viewing link must remain active until the end of the Festival.

DVD or other physical formats will not be accepted.

5.- REQUIREMENTS FOR THE SELECTED FILMS.

The deadline for submission of screening copies of the selected films and their promotional materials will be 08 April 2022. The participants must pay for any shipping costs.

The projection formats accepted by the Festival will be DCP, and high-definition digital file (mp4, mov. H264).

All those selected for the competition must send without fail, a screening copy with English subtitles, in the event that that is not its original language, and the list of dialogues in Spanish or English.

In addition to the screening copy, those selected must send an identical copy, with the same subtitling, in H264 format, which will serve as a backup.

If necessary, the Festival will commission the subtitling of the films into Spanish. The company or person who carries out this work will hold the rights to these subtitles (outside the scope of Madrid Destino and the festival), and will be free to assign or sell them directly to the owner of the rights to the film.

Those selected will send a digital file or a link with the option to download 3 minutes of their film for promotional purposes.

The participants authorise Madrid Destino to use these extracts of the films for their distribution in any communication media in order to promote the Festival. Furthermore, Madrid Destino may use photographs and audiovisual images of the films and of the directors, sent by the owners or the representatives of the films, to promote the Festival, as well as for the future creation of the Festival catalogue; under no circumstances may these be used for commercial purposes. This assignment is made for the maximum time established in the Intellectual Property Law until it enters the public domain and for all media, formats and territories. The sending of such an extract implies acceptance of all these conditions.

The Festival organisers will forward a technical report to the owners or representatives of the films if they find any irregularities in the copy, and it reserves the right not to accept copies that, after they have been checked by the Festival's technical department, turn out to be unsuitable for screening.

Copies in DCP files may be collected by their authors or returned by post by the Festival organisers to the address given in the registration form.

Works selected to participate in the National Competition will receive €350 from the festival and works selected for the International Competition will receive €500. Any applicable withholdings and taxes shall be applied to these amounts.
